The Embassy Visa file contained two addresses for Jose Antonio Morales Carbonell and Juan Jose Garcia Canas (aka Juan Jose Dalton).

The address they gave in their applications was:

Cerrada Otoño #34, Colonia Escandon,
Mexico, D.F.
(we were able to obtain two telephone numbers 516-72-28 and 526-72-18 for this address which proved to the Oficina de Derechos Humanos para El Salvador).

The other address, from a cable sent to them by Esmeraldo Brown, Director Latin American-Caribbean Seminar of the United Methodists for the United Nations, was:

Care of Roberto Cuellar
Socorro Juridico Mexicano
Iglesia del Divino Redentor
Aguscalientes 16, Mexico 7, D.F.
(The telephone number we obtained was 564 25 04)

On the afternoon of July 8, a consular employee called the (ODHES) Oficina de Derechos HUmanos para El Slavador. She Spoke to a man who said that either Morales or Garcia was out of Mexico but that we would try to get the Embassy's message (to come to Embassy's at 3:30 p.m. on July 9 to again discuss his visa application with NIV Chief, William Moody) to the one who was still in Mexico. Later on July 8, a woman, who identified herself as Marianella Villar of the ODHES, called to say they didn't know wheather either Morales or Garcia was in Mexico.

On the morning of July 9, Mr. Villar again called to say both Morales and Garcia were travelling outside of Mexico to several countries. She said calls had been made and messages left along their route and that it was hoped they would call sometimes over the weekend Ms. Villar asked if the Embassy had a recording devise to leave phone messages.
